Key Features: Anatomy of a Game Production Line XCraft Studios is an independent game developer based in Sydney. We have been working on Cognito for the past two years and hope to have it ready to take to market in March 2014. We are a small team of 4 people, largely self funded by our previous work, with a mix of additional investment and crowd funding. We firmly believe that a small team, of the right type, with good ideas, can create something beautiful in the right market, rather than following with the trends which might give the project an eventual sub par end result. Cognito has been green lit by Sony in the US so should be a bit different to what we've done before, but there are still some core ideas we have that we intend to implement. With the majority of gameplay still under wraps, we'd like to keep it as close to a secret as possible (except for those of you who are listed on our ambassadors list) until we launch. In addition to producing our game we intend to secure partnerships and utilise our skillset to develop other games for the PlayStation platform. We would be interested in talking to any interested parties that are after a developer with real expertise in creating vivid worlds and highly immersive gameplay. In the meantime we will keep releasing additional information as and when we are ready. Please feel free to leave us a comment below, and we will get back to you as soon as we are able. Greenlighted by Sony on November 13th 2014, Cognito will be released on PS4 later in 2014. Check the links on the website below for further information.
