The combination of these design-led innovations with the latest generation of EA SPORTS FIFA technology delivers football content, gameplay and graphical features for all gamers. Four pillars are the foundation for the FIFA team's approach to creating better player behavior: Physicality – A deeper understanding of player actions and a greater appreciation of the game's rules, through technological and clinical analysis, help the team create better AI player models, which affects all aspects of FIFA including the ball physics, player movement and tackling, player controls and the goalkeepers' behavior. – A deeper understanding of player actions and a greater appreciation of the game's rules, through technological and clinical analysis, help the team create better AI player models, which affects all aspects of FIFA including the ball physics, player movement and tackling, player controls and the goalkeepers' behavior. Animation – Combining the most immersive, high-fidelity animation with a range of technical innovations ensure natural player behavior, including minimized player bobble and swivel, more realistic collisions, goal celebrations, hair flicking and the like. – Combining the most immersive, high-fidelity animation with a range of technical innovations ensure natural player behavior, including minimized player bobble and swivel, more realistic collisions, goal celebrations, hair flicking and the like. Teamwork – Better player movement and player AI decisions, based on appropriate player models, give coaches more control in the tactics and formations, which in turn means more control in the match flow. Predictive Player Motion FIFA's game engine and physics engine are heavily based on player-driven actions, which is why so much of the game's animation is based on player motion. In order to capture all of the subtle movements of the actual player, the FIFA team has tested thousands of player actions on humans, resulting in a database of around 35,000 unique animations. FIFA 22 will provide improved player models, animations, animation transitions, animations on the player's progression, and improvements in the animations of celebrations, goal kicks and shots in order to bring the

I have a very long html page (script tags are there in 5-10 different places). I need to write a function which will insert following script tag (which is there in the pages) into the current page. How can I do this? Please help! `$(document).ready(function(){ var a = $('script`

What's new:

- FIFA 22 features a brand-new winning system in Career Mode. You can now win games for your team by making key tactical decisions based on the strengths of your squad.
- New Pro Challenges and Pro Showcases in Career Mode
- Dynamically responsive AI
- Over 50 new stadiums
- Position Attack: The benefits of position playing are built into FIFA 22 on and off the pitch, meaning that your weakest players are strategically selected to shield you from enemy pressure.

- Mass Select: A new in-game menu allows you to speed up the process and to pre-select what you wish to play, for an instant feel of the build up to the action.
- Tyres: A new deformable player model realistically simulates the way players push off the pitch, making it easier than ever for you to feel more confident and comfortable in possession.
- The 'Three Stars' concept: From this year onwards, when you are rewarded with the ball, you can select three specific areas on the pitch that you wish to use to pass, dribble or shoot.
- Full Entourage: A new feature unleashes 20 real-life footballers into your game, letting you play alongside the world's best footballers in the FIFA 22 Pro Clubs.
- Completely new Tactical Defending: New defensive layers mean you can actively defend in different positions, ensuring you don't become separated from the goal.
- New features in Shootout: Designed for all-round entertainment, this mode combines elements from a range of the game's techniques in one exciting interactive experience.
- New Three-on-Three Friendly Games: Play against a host of Brazil, England, France and Croatia Legends in one-off friendly matches.
- Worker Anticipation: As a leader of your men, you can now send up to two scouts to pressure the ball ahead of your move.
- Tool Kit: Create the ultimate freekicks, curlers, long balls and expertly timed offside traps
- FIFA Ultimate Team
 - New Squad Builder: Go online to design your own Fantasy team with FIFA 22's squad builder, or import one of 100,000 fantasy made by the community.

FIFA delivers real-life sensation like never before: 1,000 real-world leagues, 3,500 real-world teams, 800 real-world leagues in Europe alone, all giving you authentic emotion from the pitch. FIFA delivers real-life sensation like never before: 1,000 real-world leagues, 3,500 real-world teams, 800 real-world leagues in Europe alone, all giving you authentic emotion from the pitch. FIFA's Real Player Motion brings the speed and fluidity of real-world movement right to the pitch. Real Player Motion takes advantage of next-gen technology to deliver authentic, sensory-rich and high-resolution football. Players react to ball control in real-time, react faster to movement and are much more agile. Whether it's using Vasto GK to keep out crosses, complete dribbles, plays down the wings or intercepting through balls, players react with laser-like precision. Each touch of the ball reacts in real-time - the air felt on the ball and the difference in speed it travels reflects the decision making going on in the players mind.
