Edition Welcome to Fantasy Grounds' first guide for 2.5 on Jans Tokens, the tokens of the frozen adventurer class. In this guide, we're going to go over each tokens unique abilities. You can kill up to 1000 people in cold blood with Ebola! Ebola is not a character but a virus, just like malaria is not a character and HIV is not a character. The treatment for malaria can often be as simple as taking a dose of Malarone, and there are meds out there to treat HIV. But the thing about Ebola is that it is a lot harder to treat. There are no meds that are able to treat Ebola, or even to detect it early. I chose to focus on people getting infected, rather than on people getting treated for it. This game is not a physics simulator. I also did not focus on eradicating the virus, which is a goal that would be incredibly hard to achieve and create a game that would be way too repetitive. There is no way to win this game. Features: Sneak in a killer ending by the skin of your teeth. Over 1,000 catchable, killable suspects. Catchable suspects play a variety of roles to test your skills. Catchable suspects can talk, tell you stories, berate you, and even insult you. Each catchable suspect has his/her own personality. No weapons, just the Ebola virus. You can remove the victim's clothes. You can try to escape as you run to the hospital. You can open the safe to unlock items or you can skip to the end to save some time. Catchable suspects walk around and react in a realistic fashion. During the game, you will develop friendships or enmity with the suspects. You can abort the game at any time, even after you have caught a suspect. You have to catch the suspect before you infect yourself. There is no way to win this game, but there are things that make it challenging. Soundtrack: Features: Up to 1200+ Great Sound Effects 3 Separate Soundtracks: Prologue – Setting – Ending 4 Various Game Play Types: Sniff the victim – Access the safe – Keep running – Find the hospital – Catch the killer Play with a choice of 3 different characters 3 Different Game Play Modes: Offline mode Play against the computer Play against a friend Developer Profile: Jeroen de
