No, actually, he can't even do his right job — the consoling. The Vegas Golden Knights, in a goalie's usual sleep-inducing debut, handed the hapless habs a 5-3 loss in their home opener at Bell Centre on Friday, and while Briere was happy to bid adieu to the Montreal he's called home for the past 10 years, he couldn't enjoy it. "It's hard because we know what kind of a team we are and how good we could be. You get hopes up and they get dashed," he told reporters after the game. "But we still have a lot of pride. For us to be down three goals and finish 0 for 6 on the power play — no goals — well, at least we got the last game (against Detroit d0c515b9f4
