The question uses quotation marks to indicate that the question is a red herring. The title suggests that such questions are not allowed. But the question body contradicts this. I am tempted to delete it, because the question is just a list of words without any explanation of what they mean, without any context. However, I don't know if this is the kind of question that could be salvaged by clarifying the context of the words within the question body. A: Just posting the question body and a list of words without any explanation of what they mean, without any context is not going to be a good question. If you don't want to see questions like this on the site, then downvote them when you notice them, or flag them for deletion. The moderators will handle questions in a reasonable way. A: You are correct in that such questions are disallowed on the main site, we do allow questions that are unclear which is mostly what you have there, we don't allow lists of things which are not generally of any use for either sourcing or searching. That being said if this is the kind of thing you are looking to use as an example of a question on the main site then we don't accept them. -35 What is the value of  $(-2)/(-21) + 21208/56 \cdot 2/6$ ? 44 Evaluate  $(18/105)/(-9 \cdot (-27)/378) \cdot (-15)/84$ . -1/21  $(6 + (-336)/42)/((-24)/20) + (-174)/(-21)$  7 What is the value of  $(-279$
