we are strong in our ways against free version of sketchup pro but still, they have discontinued a new version of this addon for free. we hope this version can continue to be free for some time. the most recent update was in 2017 as the team stopped developing the free version. if you're looking for an updated free 3d modeling app, also check out autodesk 123d, autodesk 3ds max, and autocad, which are used by professionals. sketchup is the most powerful free 3d modeling software available, with advanced features for building and visualizing 3d models. it's hard to describe, but sketchup is the only free 3d modeling software that lets you see what it will look like before you build it. <http://dimesn.com/google-sketchup-pro-download/> sketchup has been featured on cnn, fox news, people, the new york times, and on countless other news and technology websites. the free download has been downloaded over 28 million times. <http://video1.foxnews.com/v/5667987802001/a-look-at-the-latest-sketchup-pro-movie-download-and-watch/> since google maps' update for android 7.0, the app has become more "legacy" and less helpful for the average person. the navigation panel has been redesigned, and its efficiency has been decreased. there are also problems with incorrect data, like on roads and buildings. the app even hasn't included turn-by-turn directions, which made google maps the most navigational app. for me, this was a huge mistake. there are a number of features that were important to me that google maps no longer included or included with less convenience. it's hard for me to describe some of the features that were included in google
