Bir Form 1905 !!LINK!! Download Pdf

for those who transferred from one rdo to another rdo, you only need to fill out the first part of the form, that is, part b below. why do i need to transfer from one rdo to another: in the course of a tax collection mandate of the philippine government, it can happen that an employer or employee must change the place of business. if the place of business of an individual has changed to another rdo, he/she is required to transfer his/her tin registration to the new rdo to avoid prosecution for tax evasion. this is true for both one-time taxpayers (e.g. individuals who come into bir after acquiring a bir tin) and those who register their business and employees. in order to transfer or cancel the registration of your tin, you need to use the form available from the bir website. download the pdf version here. you can only change/replace/cancel your tin (including id number) by submitting a request for change of tin form, and can be submitted by you/your representative, the corporate officer of the corporation, or the legal representative of the corporation. make sure to download the correct form, as the correct form will be the one sent by the bir. make sure to be careful with the signature and seal pages as the incorrect one can be rejected. what is part b? part b is a self-explanatory form that only is used if the applicant is a business owner. if youre an individual and not a business owner, you need only fill out part a of the form. the bottom line of part b is: insert the bir form 1905 that accompanies this form and sign it. the form and the documents are only valid if these are submitted together.
