Lyrics He entered your heart with his hands on your shoulders he sat down at the table that you have before you he was looking in your eyes as if your name was a tongue made up with two syllables your name was a smile at dawn no sooner had he lost your name than i lost mine it was the first time to a foreigner The best!!! In the end she got a job, met a suitable person and was married in a big wedding ceremony, although the guests were all very uncomfortable because they didn't speak English. The only time culture came up was a very long discussion of the differences between day and night culture, typical and atypical culture and then the general theory was confirmed when someone complained that the theory was about all culture and that it was not possible to have atypical culture. After a couple of months he began to feel like he had a life again and his family were thrilled to have him home and after a little while he began to get over his bereavement and started to feel a little better.
