Two match fixing plans were uncovered after a tip-off, and two other players and coaches were also involved in the plan, the SFA said in a media release. The three arrested men, aged between 27 and 31, are seen in the above picture. "This is the first time that SFA has been involved in an investigation of match-fixing in Singapore football," the SFA said. "This is being taken seriously by the SFA and will be fully pursued in court." The arrests were made after a tip-off to SFA police was made on Friday morning. The tip-off was made by an agent of one of the teams that was involved in the original match-fixing plan, the SFA said. "The agent provided details of the match fixing, the team, players and other participants, including the match officials, of the illegal agreement. "The agent also provided details of the original match fixing plan, which involves 3 matches between S.League teams." The SFA said that, as a result of the tip-off, it will now look into the history of all of the participants, the coaches and officials involved in the suspected match fixing plans. "The SFA will also be analysing the totality of evidence from that tip-off to determine which matches were part of the alleged match-fixing plan, in the event that it has to take any further action on that matter." The Singapore Police Force on Friday also confirmed the arrests. "Officers of the joint investigation team arrested three Vietnamese nationals from 6.45pm to 8.30pm (on Friday)," it said. "The teams, referees and police officers of the matches under investigation were alerted by the SFA. "In
